

S. 2688. An act to amend the Native American Languages Act to provide for the support of Native American Language Survival Schools, and for other purposes.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain 15 1-minutes from each side.

HEY BIG SPENDER

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, last month the General Accounting Office study reported that a dozen of the largest Federal agencies squandered nearly $21 billion in 1999; $21 billion, Mr. Speaker.

If the Federal government was a corporation, the CEO would have been fired by now.

But instead, our colleagues on the other side of the aisle, some of the Democrats, continue to fight for bigger government and increased spending plans of the Clinton-Gore administration, an administration which has never reprimanded its own bureaucratic agencies for their sloppy bookkeeping.

It is obvious that the bookkeeping of our Federal agencies is in complete disarray. The Department of Education could not even complete its last audit. They ought to learn some basic third-grade math skills.

Mr. Speaker, this irresponsible and wasteful government spending must come to a stop. It is time that the Clinton-Gore administration stop the sloppy math and join this Republican-led Congress to devote 90 percent of the surplus for debt reductions to protect social security and Medicare.

That way, at least our budget surplus will not be squandered, too.

AMERICA MUST PRESSURE HAGUE CONVENTION SIGNATORIES TO COMPLY WITH CHILD ABDUCTION PROVISIONS

(Mr. LAMPSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMPSON. Mr. Speaker, today my story is about Mitchell Goldstein and his daughter, Kelly, age 8. Kelly was abducted from Atlanta, Georgia, to Switzerland when she was 4 years old by her mother, Sandra Gyr Pfisterer, during a court-ordered visitation in 1996.

Since this time, Mr. Goldstein has been trying to have Kelly returned from Switzerland via the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. Despite numerous court orders from the Swiss court, including from the Supreme Court, officials in Switzerland have refused to enforce the court orders and Kelly remains abroad without any contact from her father.

Switzerland is our ally. Mr. Goldstein has full custody of Kelly. He has numerous court orders from Switzerland and the United States ordering Kelly's return home. Switzerland and the U.S. are parties to the Hague Convention, yet Kelly remains separated from her father.

Mr. Speaker, children like Kelly deserve to have a relationship with both their parents, and parents deserve a relationship with their children. The House should make sure that the most sacred of bonds, that between a parent and child, is preserved. We must pressure signatory countries to comply with the Hague Convention, especially in cases such as these, where their own courts have ordered a return.

SALUTING SOUTH FLORIDIANS WHO PARTICIPATED IN SYDNEY 2000 OLYMPICS

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I congratulate all the individuals from South Florida who participated in the Sidney 2000 Olympics.

I am proud to know that there were athletes from our area representing the United States. These individuals honored our community and our country:

Juan Miguel Moreno in Tai Kwon Do;
Angel Perez in kayak;
Magnus Liljedahl in star sailing, he won the Gold Medal;

Alonzo Mourning and Tim Hardaway in basketball, also Gold Medalists;

Seilala Sua in discus;
Michele Davison, Jenny Keim, and David Pichler in diving;

Margie Goldstein-Engle in equestrian;

Lauren Meece and Lauren Moreno in judo;

Vince Spadea in tennis;
Mickisha Hurley and George Roumain in volleyball;

And Doug Meintkiewicz in baseball, a Gold Medalist.

There were other residents from South Florida who, although they did not represent the United States, did an outstanding job in representing other countries, and this demonstrated the cultural diversity and excellence that makes our area such a unique place and a wonderful area in which to live.

These athletes stand as examples of perfection, excellence, and diligence, and of what can be achieved through many years of hard work and dedication. I am proud to know that they are from South Florida, and I ask my congressional colleagues to join me in congratulating not only these Olympians, but all the athletes who showed the rest of the world the best that our country has to offer.

AN AMERICA WITHOUT GOD IS AN AMERICA THE FOUNDERS NEVER INTENDED

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, the United States Army in Europe has denied Catholic soldiers the right to hold mass in the base chapel. A spokesman said, and I quote, "The Army will not pay for the cost of a priest." He further said, "If we allow the Catholics in, we must allow all religions in."

Now, if that is not enough to shred the Bible, the Army does allow and permits witchcraft and pagan ceremonies at the base. The spokesman said, and I quote, "The witchcraft groups pay for their own pagan ministers."

Unbelievable. It is time to call in the dogs, throw the coffee grinds on the fire, the hunting is over. When the U.S. Army allows satan in one door and will not allow God in the other door, America is so screwed up we do not know where we are going.

Beam me up, here. I yield back the fact that an America without God is an America that the Founders never planned.

WHO DO YOU TRUST?

(Mr. SMITH of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SMITH of Texas. Mr. Speaker, George Bush wants our children to learn more in school. He wants those who work to keep more of their hard-earned dollars, and he wants those who are retired to have a secure future.

George Bush trusts the people. His opponent wants more government. George Bush trusts parents with school choices. He trusts taxpayers to spend their dollars better than the government. He trusts retirees to invest their savings.

On the other hand, his opponent has a trust problem. Under the Clinton-Gore administration, numerous officials have been indicted or convicted, 83 witnesses refused to testify in court about campaign contribution violations, and another 21 fled the country.

To restore integrity to the White House, the American people deserve a president they can trust. George Bush wants a government worthy of so great a people, a government that is honest, nonpartisan, and scandal-free. Only one presidential candidate can lead America to that shining goal: George Bush.

THE REPUBLICANS' FIG LEAF PRESCRIPTION DRUG BILL

(Mr. McDERMOTT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, today is Republican fig leaf bill on the cost of
